ASAAD K. SIDDIQI

ASSOCIATE

Mr. Siddiqi earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in History from Rutgers College, Rutgers University in May 1998 and his Juris Doctor degree from St. John's University School of Law in May 2001, through its Accelerated Program. While in law school, he received the First Prize Award in the 2000 Nathan Burkan Memorial Writing Competition, the Dean's Academic Achievement Scholarship Award, and the Second Prize Award in the 2001 Los Angeles County Bar Association's National Writing Competition. He also served as an Associate Articles Editor and staff member on the New York International Law Review and as an executive board member of the Asian American Law Students Association. After graduating from law school, he served as law clerk for the Honorable Madeline Cox Arleo, United States Magistrate Judge for the District of New Jersey (2001-2002). He is a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association and the Litigation Section of the American Bar Association (ABA). He is also currently serving a two-year term as Vice-President of the Muslim Bar Association of New York. He is admitted to practice law in New Jersey, New York, the District of New Jersey, the Southern District of New York, and the Eastern District of New York, and practices in the areas of business litigation and white-collar criminal defense.
